Rome Rotary Club
Oneida Indian Nation
City of Rome
and Chamber Members & Volunteers who participated at the Silent Auction Fundraiser for Honor America Days

The parade is organized by the Honor America Days Committee of the Rome Area Chamber of Commerce and only the units listed below are participants in the parade. Am Care Ambulances will be positioned at Maple/James and Embargo/James intersections.

The parade will move promptly at 10am. Marshals of the divisions will assist participants in finding their place.

The Roman Runners Road Race begins at 8:30am along the parade route, so participants and the public will not be able to drive on North James Street after 8:00am.

Carl Eilenberg will be the Parade Master of Ceremonies. The reviewing stand is located opposite the Rome VFW, at the intersection of North Washington Street and West Embargo Street. Chris Roy of Oneida-Madison ARES will be at the reviewing stand.

Restrooms are available at Rome Memorial Hospital and the Franklyn's Field Clubhouse. And two portajohns on the lawn adjacent to Maple Street.

The lead vehicle in each division is provided by the Oneida-Madison Amateur Radio Emergency Service of the American Radio Relay League (a national organization) to assist in ensuring public safety.
