"It is not the strongest of the species that survive, nor the most intelligent, but the ones most responsive to change."

Love and change. These are the words I find myself dwelling on as I write this opening message to our Rome Area Chamber of Commerce's Member Directory and Community Guide. We are heading into a new Chamber year unlike one we have experienced in several decades. This past year, our Chamber President Bill Guglielmo retired and then passed away shortly thereafter. Fifty years with the Rome Chamber, Bill was the face of the Rome business community and provided all of us with stalwart leadership and friendship. He was always about the mission of being an advocate for the business community and no one stayed truer to that mission. He never wanted the attention on himself, always putting it on the Chamber volunteers and our members. We will honor Bill by adapting to life without him, upholding our mission and continuing to work towards and lobby for a vibrant economic environment. He would want it no other way.

And as this new year unfolds, we celebrate the arrival of our new President Kristen Skobla, who comes to us from the Center for Leadership Excellence/Mohawk Valley Community College. Kristen brings rich and varied experience in leadership, economic development and marketing and we are confident in her abilities to lead us into this new era. Our Board of Directors and Executive Committee went through an exhaustive search for this crucial role and we are thrilled to have Kristen on board, along with our new Communications and Marketing Director, Ryan Gros who joins longtime employee Sue Pardi on the Chamber team. We look forward to a new and exciting period for our Chamber! I would also be remiss if I didn't take time to personally thank Wes Cupp, former Chairman and current Board Member who stepped in, on a volunteer basis, to fill the President role while we undertook our search. Wes did a remarkable job, and we are incredibly grateful.

As a Chamber, we are ever optimistic about Rome's economic future. Small businesses remain the fabric of our city and we will continue to seek ways to serve them and bring them value, while also partnering with and assisting the interests of our larger members located at Griffiss Business and Technology Park and beyond.

Our love for Bill lives on. Our mission to provide business advocacy, aid in economic growth and promote our community will remain at the heart of our actions. The future for the Rome Chamber and our community is indeed bright. Onward.

Sincerely,

Nick Angelicola

LIVING HERE

The City of Rome gained its reputation as the Copper City during the Industrial Revolution when the city produced an estimated 10 percent of all copper in the United States. Though still having a significant industrial presence, Rome has transformed itself to a city focusing on the next generation of cybersecurity initiatives, unmanned aerial systems (UAS) testing and research, in conjunction with the world renowned Air Force Research Laboratory (AFRL) located at the former Griffiss Air Force Base, home to over 5000 employees amid a mix of high technology, Department of Defense facilities, and light industrial businesses. The city offers a rich quality of life with employment opportunities, an education system that prepares students for college, and a hospital that offers state of the art care, all with convenient accessibility to the region's offerings. Nestled in the middle of New York State, Rome is only a short distance from the high peaks of the Adirondacks, New York City and Boston, and the world-famous Niagara Falls.

“As a local Realtor, I am often asked why our home prices in Rome are so low compared with other parts of the country, but our taxes seem to be a bit on the high side. As a Rome resident myself, my thoughts on the topic are this: When property is widely affordable & taxes seem high, to me, that is indicative of a higher QUALITY of life. First, when owning property is an attainable possibility for a greater number of residents, that is always a plus for a city. More home ownership is KEY to a city's success.

Second, property taxes are used to pay for services that a city provides.

In Rome's case, our city taxes include city sewer, unmetered water & garbage pick up. Additionally, here in Rome, we have CLEAN parks, city pools, well-maintained streets, beautifully landscaped public spaces, sidewalks, streetlights, a local hospital, fully renovated, state-of-the-art schools, several yearly events, as well as the advantages that come along with having a well-staffed city police force and fire department. Our quality of life here in Rome is soaring, and our taxes make all of that possible.”

SAFE NEIGHBORHOODS

The Rome Police Department is comprised of 76 sworn full-time police officers, several part-time officers, and 2 civilians. In order to give the community the best police service, the department has several specialized units, which consist of several divisions. The department has been continually accredited by the State of New York since 2003.

As a result of a directive to police departments across New York State from the NYS governor's office, in light of civil unrest nationwide at the time, the Rome Police Community Advisory Committee began meeting in August 2020 to identify areas of improvement and reform that continue to be implemented at the Rome Police Department.

The Rome Fire Department is responsible for protecting Rome's 33,000 citizens in a 75.7 sq. mile area. The response district includes an array of urban, suburban and rural areas. Also included is the Griffiss International Airport and the Griffiss Business and Technology Park, formerly Griffiss Air Force Base.

The department has an authorized strength of 85 personnel working out of two fire stations. They respond to over 5,000 calls per year providing fire suppression, emergency medical services, hazardous materials response, aircraft rescue firefighting, technical rescue including high angle and confined space rescue, fire cause and origin investigations and hazards mitigation. The Department is also in disaster preparedness and planning, juvenile fire setter counseling, codes enforcement inspections and participates in a high school student internship program.

The City of Rome has wrapped up another year of growth opportunity that's expanded throughout the region. Not only will the effects be felt in the areas of economic development, but it will also be felt in residential housing options.

The $10 million Downtown Revitalization Initiative (DRI) is in full swing with a multitude of projects underway and/or completed, the largest being the Capitol Theatre renovation. The Downtown Revitalization Initiative (DRI) moves to the eastern end of the arts district with the demolition of Fort Stanwix Parking garage. A 200 space open parking lot will replace the garage and renovations to City Hall will begin in the summer 2023.

Heading further west downtown, the city completed a $700,000 Complete Streets project in the 400 block of West Dominick Street, home to the Great Carry. Through the gracious donation of the Oneida Indian Nation, Oneida Indian Nation Representative and Oneida Nation Enterprises Chief Executive Officer Ray Halbritter unveiled a stunning memorial to commemorate the Great Carrying Place's history and standing as a focal point to the westside entry to the

Cold Point, Inc. completed construction of their 50,000 sq. ft. light manufacturing facility on the former Rome Cable site in 2021, and today is employing almost 50 people. This $5 million facility also had a DRI grant of $900,000. New York State Department of Environmental Conservation also completed a $14 million cleanup and demolition of the remaining Rome Cable Factory Complex Four, improving a previously contaminated brownfield site and readying the site for future development opportunities.

throughout the United States and Canada, with more than 300 new jobs added to the 800,000 sq. ft. Rome site.

The Innovare Advancement Center (IAC) at the Griffiss Institute, a collaborative open-space campus, is promoting interaction between Rome Lab, Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS) and visiting professionals by attracting scientists and academia from around the globe. Since opening 2020, IAC has brought together leading companies in science and technology and is the Department of Defense's lead in Quantum Computing, Artificial Intelligence (AI), machine learning and unmanned aerial systems research.

Oneida County continues to be a strong partner in the growth of the airport and facilities like the IAC at Griffiss. Three years ago, in conjunction with Mohawk Valley EDGE, Rome embarked on a strategy to encourage a mixed-use development on the Griffiss Park. Today, Bonacio Construction has invested over $20 million in Air City Lofts, which features market rate apartment housing with complimentary business amenities. Phase 1 (84 units) is completely occupied. Phase 2 (72 units) opened to full occupancy in 2022 and Phase 3 featuring 100 more market rate apartment units will open in May and July 2023. CRUST Kitchen and Bar and Bowl Boss restaurants have opened in the complex.

We are continuing with a strong focus on new residential housing at the former Woodhaven property located within walking distance of the Griffiss Park, across the street from Mohawk Valley Community College

Rome Campus, where the former base housing complex stood. Bonacio Construction has begun building 255 single-family houses on the approximately 100-acre site, where a new YMCA and a mixed-use facility on Floyd Avenue is proposed. This is the most ambitious housing project to be undertaken in our city in decades but shows the tremendous residential growth potential presented by the Griffiss Park and the Wolfsped Mohawk Valley Fab at SUNY Polytechnic Institute in neighboring Marcy.

Buck Construction has completed 64 units of market rate apartments on Merrick Rd with 36 townhouse units under construction on the Delta Luxury site.

Economic development activities will continue to be a cornerstone of our strategy to seek out new business opportunities and jobs for our city, as well as continuing to foster the addition of residential housing options to assist us in capturing our workforce to live closer to where they work with new, modern housing options.

HERITAGE

Designated a National Monument in 1935 and opening to the public in 1976, Fort Stanwix NM sits on the original location of the 1700s stronghold of the Mohawk Valley. Known as “the fort that never surrendered”, Fort Stanwix was used through both the French and Indian War and American Revolution. It was also the site of two important American Indian treaties in 1768 and 1784. A modern visitor center, museum, and a rich living history program bring the National Park Service site to life. The park being an iconic symbol of freedom, patriotism, and perseverance is an integral hub within Rome. It proudly promotes community inclusion and engagement through its diverse events, gatherings, and programs throughout the year utilizing Rome’s largest downtown greenspace.

The Rome Historical Society (RHS) has both permanent and rotating exhibits based on its collection of more than 40,000 items, carefully preserved in artifact storage. In addition, RHS is home to the William E. Scripture Research Library which contains over 10,000 archived books, documents, photographs, and paper records. Annually, RHS hosts a wide variety of events in its Stevens-Kingsley Foundation Auditorium and maintains three additional historic sites: The Lower Landing Place, Fort Bull/Wood Creek (National Register-listed and accessible by appointment), and The Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers of the American Revolution.

ROME CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT

CREATING SUCCESSFUL FUTURES

The Rome City School District is centrally located in the heart of New York, between Syracuse and Albany. The public-school district serves approximately 5,659 students and has a unique and proud history. Serving as an integral part of the greater Rome community, the district offers programs and supportive partnerships with various organizations contributing to the greater good of our students, our families and our community. The District offers a wide range of programs and services, including Advanced Placement and college level courses. The district's rich curricular offerings are reflected in the fact that Rome students can graduate from Rome Free Academy with enough credits to begin their sophomore year of college.

The Rome City School District is comprised of six elementary schools, one middle school and one high school. The children and families of Rome are provided a great start to their education through a comprehensive Early Childhood Program (Pre-K).

There are Pre-K programs for three and four year olds at Clough and RCS in Rome. The program uses Inquiry Based Learning. This learning model is a form of active learning that starts by posing questions, problems or scenarios for children to wonder about, investigate and begin to formulate their own learning through play. Please call Rome Early Childhood at (315) 334-1250 for more details. The District prepares students from Pre-K to high school (more than half of our juniors and seniors take AP and College Credit courses), giving them the skills to graduate college and career ready. Mohawk Valley Community College Offers Free Tuition to The Top 10 Percent of Our Graduating Class!

PROJECT FIBONACCI FOUNDATION

The Project Fibonacci Foundation, a non-profit educational organization focused on using STEAM education (STEM with the Arts) to promote the next wave of young scholars, scientists, artists & productive citizens, enabling them to deal more effectively with the challenges of our ever-increasingly complex and diverse world.

Project Fibonacci has also initiated programs, including a literacy initiative, ILiFT, to improve literacy for 3-5 year olds; organized volunteers for a community free food distribution program; conducted STEAM-related field trips for educators and students; and continues its awareness campaigns focused on STEAM-related events and opportunities throughout the region.

ROME MENTORING PROGRAM

As part of its longstanding commitment to serve the needs of the community, the Rome Chamber has been instrumental in the success of the Rome City School District Mentoring Program through its recruitment of volunteer mentors who help elementary school children achieve their full potential.

In partnership with the Rome Chamber and the New York State Mentoring Program, the Rome school district launched its program in three schools during the 2016-17 academic year, adding two more schools in 2017-18. Due to its success with students, the program was expanded to all seven elementary schools in 2018-19 and 2019-20.

Since the Rome program's inception, the Chamber has recruited approximately 200 mentors through mass e-mailings, news releases, radio interviews, on-site visits, and informational meetings. During the most recent mentoring year, the Chamber recruited 70 mentors, enlisting the active support of members of the Eastern Air Defense Sector and the Air Force Research Laboratory, as well as other Chamber member-businesses and organizations.

Research shows that mentoring goes a long way toward helping children establish healthy bonds with their mentors in a safe, comfortable environment. Under the Rome program model, mentors and mentees meet for one hour a week during the school year, under the guidance of a site coordinator at each mentoring site who directs the weekly programs that consist of group discussions, one-to-one mentoring, and special projects and activities.

Following a three-year pause due to the coronavirus epidemic, the program was re-started in 2023 in two elementary schools. Former Chamber President, the late William K. Guglielmo understood the importance of helping Rome's school children succeed, and he recognized how important it is for the community from an educational, social, and economic aspect.

For further information about the Rome Mentoring Program, contact the Rome Chamber at (315) 337-1700.

DRONES AT HOME IN ROME

NUAIR (Northeast UAS Airspace Integration Research Alliance, Inc.) is a New York-based nonprofit with a mission to safely integrate uncrewed aircraft systems (UAS), commonly referred to as drones, into the national airspace, enabling scalable, economically viable commercial drone operations.

NUAIR manages operations of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) designated New York UAS Test Site at Griffiss International Airport, on behalf of Oneida County and is responsible for the advancement of New York's 50-mile Drone Corridor between Rome and Syracuse. The test site is one of only seven FAA-designated UAS test sites in the country and continues to draw companies from across the globe to Central New York to test and deploy their drone operations.

NUAIR has completed over 4,000 UAS test flights, using small, medium, and large drones, in multiple states, and in two Class D airspace locations, equating to over 950 total flight hours.

Oneida County Executive Anthony J. Picente Jr. recently announced that the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has granted the New York Uncrewed Aircraft Systems (UAS) Test Site at Griffiss International Airport new civil authority to advance the research, development, and commercialization of UAS (drone) operations. The test site can now operate drones weighing under 300 pounds throughout New York's 50-mile drone corridor and be compensated for operations. The test site has been operating under a different authority called public aircraft operations (PAO) for the last decade for research and development and other core governmental functions. The new civil authority (Waiver 44803c) "Charlie Waiver" covers New York's 50-mile beyond visual line of sight (BVLOS) UAS corridor connecting Griffiss and Syracuse Hancock International airports, opening the door for scalable, commercial operations.

NUAIR has helped more than 60 public, state, and local agencies integrate drones into their daily operations to help save time, money, and lives. Drones are currently being used by local fire and police departments to assist in emergency response scenarios and accident reconstruction. Most recently, the New York State Thruway Authority (NYSTA) launched their drone pilot program with NUAIR to help increase safety and reduce the cost of routine bridge inspections. NYSTA is quickly seeing the cost savings and efficiency of drones and are now looking to utilize them for mapping and surveying the 570-mile superhighway system.

NUAIR and Oneida County concluded their $897,000 NASA Advanced Air Mobility (AAM) task order in 2021, producing three industry-leading documents that laid the groundwork for "flying taxis" – large, unmanned aircraft that could transport people and cargo. Research, development and integration of UAS and AAM technologies continue in Rome and throughout New York's 50-mile Drone Corridor. Visit www.nuair.org to learn more.

Every Season IS HOT!!

Established in 1925 as a social club for Italian immigrants, The Rome Toccolana Club has expanded to fifteen Bocce Courts and will host its 48th annual World Series of Bocce in July 2023.

In mid-July, more than 700 bicyclists and visitors will visit Rome and camp out on the lawn at Fort Stanwix National Monument, as a stop in the annual Cycling the Erie Canal event. The eight-day, 400-mile bicycle tour from Buffalo to Albany follows the historic and scenic Erie Canal, mostly on the traffic-free Canalway Trail.

One of Central New York's largest spectacles of community pride and patriotic enthusiasm, the 40th annual Honor America Days Parade on the last Saturday in July, steps off with more than 100 units, including marching bands, community-designed floats competing for prizes, a flag-waving good time enjoyed by thousands of friends and families cheering from curb-side, storefronts, and front porches along two miles of city streets. That evening, the great lawn at Fort Stanwix hosts the annual Pops Concert performed by The Symphoria Symphony Orchestra, featuring the Syracuse Pops Chorus, popular show tunes, rousing marches, and a celebration of the American spirit along with cannon fire, the ringing of church bells, and a spectacular fireworks display during the 1812 Overture and the Stars and Stripes. This free event is presented each year by the Rome Area Chamber of Commerce and the City of Rome, in partnership with generous sponsors.

Drums Along the Mohawk, the international drum corps competition, is also part of Rome's summer festivities. Rome Rotary Canalfest is a three-day family friendly event early in August in Bellamy Harbor Park, complete with rides, vendors, food, and fireworks.

Bellamy Harbor Park's Navigation Center complex has a boat launch and many amenities for canal travelers. The water tower is constantly lit, welcoming visitors. The tower is a lasting monument to the Erie Canal's Bicentennial celebrated in 2017 and dedicated to Rome's manufacturing heritage.

Larry DeLutis Field at Griffiss Park offers first-class baseball fields in a park-like setting for youth and adult league teams at all levels. Fans can catch games under the lights, too, as DeLutis Field also hosts such tournaments as the NYS High School Baseball Section III and NYS Championships, the County & District American Legion tournament, and college-level play.

Winter fun at Woods Valley Ski Area is just 20 minutes away from downtown Rome, welcoming visitors with major upgrades to the Lodge and highest quality snow conditions on beginner, novice and expert trails. The Learning Zone and Tubing Park both have the latest SunKid Wonder Carpet surface lifts to enhance your experience. Tap Room 46 is a full service bar featuring live music all winter long. A family owned and operated ski area known for its robust snowmaking system and impeccable grooming, Woods Valley is the skiing, snowboarding, tubing and live music destination in the Mohawk Valley.

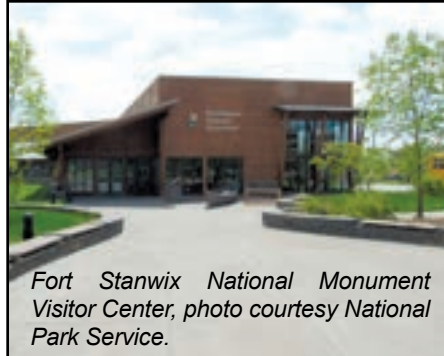

Rome City parks boast all kinds of playing fields and courts, including pickleball, and playground equipment for all ages.

ATTRACTIONS

Designated a National Monument in 1935 and opening to the public in 1976, Fort Stanwix NM sits on the original location of the 1700s stronghold of the Mohawk Valley. Known as "the fort that never surrendered", Fort Stanwix was used through both the French and Indian War and American Revolution. It was also the site of two important American Indian treaties in 1768 and 1784. A modern visitor center, museum, and a rich living history program bring the National Park Service site to life. The park being an iconic symbol of freedom, patriotism, and perseverance is an integral hub within the REACH (Rome Educational, Arts, Cultural, and Historic District). It proudly promotes community inclusion and engagement through its diverse events, gatherings, and programs throughout the year utilizing Rome's largest downtown green space.

The Rome Historical Society (RHS) has both permanent and rotating exhibits based on its collection of more than 40,000 items, carefully preserved in artifact storage. In addition, RHS is home to the William E. Scripture Research Library which contains over 10,000 archived books, documents, photographs, and paper records. Annually, RHS hosts a wide variety of events in its Stevens-Kingsley Foundation Auditorium and maintains three additional historic sites: The Lower Landing Place, Fort Bull/Wood Creek (National Register-listed and accessible by appointment), and The Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers of the American Revolution.

At the Shako:wi Cultural Center, the Oneida Indian Nation shares its culture and history with area residents. The impressive white pine log building introduces visitors to the role of the Oneida People as America's First Allies during the Revolutionary War, along with displays that share Oneida crafts, traditions and art. The cultural center frequently hosts gatherings and presentations about the Oneida Indian Nation as well.

The Rome Sports Hall of Fame and Museum is a non-profit organization dedicated to honoring and preserving the thrill and great sports achievements of Rome's gifted athletes. More than 50 exhibits maintain and enhance the historic record with pictures, trophies, uniforms and equipment depicting local athletes' days of glory. The Racing Wing has memorabilia from NASCAR Champions Jerry Cook and Richie Evans, National Speed Boat Champion Dave Packer, and more. Throughout the year, the organization offers sports clinics, recognition and receptions for local youth sports individuals and teams, special awards, receptions, and annual induction ceremonies.
